Re: United States v. Adewumni Shinaba
 S3 06 Cr. 648 (PAC)

Dear Judge Crotty:

This matter is scheduled for sentencing before Your Honor next Tuesday, August 19, 2008 at 4:00 p.m. Per my conversation with your chambers, and with the consent of the Government, the parties respectfully request an adjournment of the sentencing date to Thursday, September 18th, 2008 at 4:00 p.m., if that day and time is convenient for the Court. We have just received the Pre-Sentence Report from the Probation Department which we are sending to our client, Mr. Shinaba, in Ohio. It is our intention to make a submission to the Court urging imposition of a non-custodial sentence which we will need this additional time to prepare.

I have spoken with AUSA Jessica Masella who has authorized me to advise the Court that her office has no objection to the requested adjournment of the sentencing date. ~~The parties jointly consent to an "interests of justice" exclusion under the Speedy Trial Act through the requested adjourned date or such alternative adjourned date as the Court may set.~~
